Lágrima de Vino Naranja

D.O. Condado de Huelva

Grape: Palomino fino, Garrido, Zalema and Pedro Ximenez

Author wine, made of a limited edition coupage. A 1940 Oloroso "solera" wine blended with an old Vino Naranja, obtained from the maceration of sweet wine with bitter orange skin during more than 12 months in american oak barrels.

Presents unknown characteristics among the world of wine because of the unusual mixture between the 1940 Oloroso and the velvety citric sweetness of orange. An spectacular jewel for authentic specialists in wine and spirits.

Colour: very dark mahogany because of oxidation in american oak barrels.

Aroma: incredible conjunction in nose of the citric tones of orange with the velvety touch of Pedro Ximenez, perfectly assembled with the spirit of our limited 1940 Oloroso.

Palate: powerful, armonic, makes evident the delicate co-existence of the very old Oloroso and the unique Vino Naranja, totally opposite but masterly together in an outstanding spirituous wine of balsamic notes, ripen fruit, nuts, moka, chocolate and "soleras", something exclusive and unrepeatable.

Suitable as aperitive, after-lunch and dessert.

Serve at 10-12°C
